

Multiple Choice Questions Choose the correct answer from the three options.

1. Into how many main parts are the Italian Alps divided?
A) Two
B) Three
C) Four
2. Which of these plants is found in the high mountains (alpine meadows) where it is cold and trees cannot grow?
A) Pine tree
B) Beech tree
C) Edelweiss
3. What is the economy of the Alps primarily based on?
A) Chemical industries and factories
B) Tourism, farming, and nature
C) Exclusively cutting wood

True or False Indicate whether the statement is true or false.

4. Mont Blanc, the highest mountain in Europe, is located in the Eastern Alps area.
5. The Alps form a long natural wall between Italy and other European countries.
6. Many rivers start in the Central Alps because of the snow and ice.

Open-Ended Questions Answer clearly and completely.

7. What are the main characteristics of the Eastern Alps' appearance, and which world-famous mountain range is located in this area?
8. How are the animals that live in the Alps described in relation to their environment? Provide at least three examples of animals found there.
9. Why do tourists visit the Alps? Describe the main activities they do during the winter and the summer.

SOLUTIONS

Solutions: Multiple Choice

1. B) Three. The Alps in Italy are divided into three main parts: Western Alps, Central Alps, and Eastern Alps.
2. C) Edelweiss. It grows in the high mountains or alpine meadows, where it is cold and windy and trees cannot grow.
3. B) Tourism, farming, and nature. The simple summary of the economy states it is based on tourism, farming, and nature, with farmers raising cows and goats to produce milk, cheese, and butter.

Solutions: True or False 4. False. Mont Blanc is located in the Western Alps, which are the highest part of the Alps. 5. True. They are one of the largest mountain ranges in Europe and form a natural wall separating Italy from the rest of Europe. 6. True. The Central Alps have high peaks and large glaciers, and many rivers start there because of the snow and ice.

Solutions: Open-Ended 7. The Eastern Alps are famous for their rocky shapes and light-colored mountains. The world-famous mountain range located in this area is the Dolomites. 8. Animals in the Alps are described as being strong and well adapted to cold weather. Examples of these animals include the wolf, roe deer, ibex, chamois, lynx, marmot, and red deer. 9. The economy relies heavily on tourism; tourists come to the Alps to ski in winter and walk in summer.